RUMORED THAT COUNCILMAN A. H. FURLONG WILL RESIGN

Was Sworn in at the Reorganization Meeting First of This Month.

HOTT TO SUCCEED HIM?

Stated That One Has Already Been Selected to Take Seat in Case New Man Quits.

It has been rumored that at the next meeting of council, A. H. Furlong, one of the newly elected councilmen, will present his resignation as a member, to take effect within a short time. It is stated Mr. Furlong expects to move from Charleroi, although still continuing his piano business here. The rumor has not become a certainty, however, but it is understood to be correct.

Mr. Furlong was sworn in at the reorganization of council on March 7, and appointed on several important committees. He has attended but two meetings, but in that time has taken an active part in the putting through of important business and showed a civic interest in the welfare of the borough that indicated a wise selection for the important seat by the voters of Charleroi.

Along with the rumor that Mr. Furlong is to resign is a rumor that Ex-Burgess James J. Hott is to be elected his successor. This is the rumor among the members of council and some of the people who are closely in touch with borough matters. Mr. Hott was elected a member of council two terms before, and it is understood that should he be the chosen one, would willingly serve.

GOOD CROWDS AT THE COYLE THEATRE

Tonight will be the last chance to see the very excellent bill at the Coyle Theatre and the management will give the usual three shows starting at 7, 8:15 and 9:30 p. m.

There will be an entire change of program starting Monday, and the usual five big feature acts will be in evidence presenting some new and novel features, chief among whom will be the Harris Twins.

Popular prices prevail at the big play house. General admission 10 cents with the first 8 rows down stairs at 15 cents.

Luther League Social.

A good crowd attended the Luther League social held in the 'Christ Lutheran church last night. An enjoyable time was had with various diversions of a social nature.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Coles of the Wilbur Hotel expect to leave tomorrow night for Hot Springs, Ark., for a brief sojourn.

Announcement.

Mrs. M. Stewart Smith, of Charleroi, Pa., invites the ladies to meet Madam Gleason, an expert corseter, of New York, with all the spring models of the Mozart and Gossard Corset. To be at the Wilbur hotel from March 21 to 26. Come and bring your friends to this demonstration of laced front corsets.

Mrs. M. Stewart.

Contractor Much Injured in Fall From Scaffold

Board Breaks Precipitating Him to Floor, Distance of About Eight Feet.

Frank Bly, the well known contractor and builder of Fallowfield avenue, while at work at the Monier building on Fallowfield avenue yesterday, fell and was seriously hurt. Mr. Bly was up on a scaffold when a board broke, precipitating him to the floor, a distance of about 8 feet. He alighted on his head and shoulders in a pile of rubbish. Fortunately no bones were broken, but Mr. Bly was much bruised and injured about the body. He was removed to his home.

CENSUS MEN WILL HAVE TO WEAR BADGES

Department Will Provide Insignia of Office to Enumerators.

PEOPLE SHOULD NOT FEAR

"U. S. Census 1910." When on and after April 15 people see a limited few persons wearing badges containing the above words and numerals, they are not to be frightened, but prepare for a searching inquiry as to their family, their names, occupation and so forth. None but the census enumerators and the supervisor have any right to wear them, and the badges will be under the coat.

The badges are an official insignia, which the census department furnishes in order that people wary of attempts to catch them in any trick by which their assessment may be raised, or for any other reason, may be positive of their position. The census enumerators will not be required to show their badges unless requested by those whom they are interviewing.

Census Director E. Dana Durand has issued a small pamphlet concerning the taking of the census, in which the entire matter is outlined. Replies to enumerators are, and must be held by the Census Bureau, in strict and absolute confidence. All the U. S. census officials, interpreters, etc., before entering upon their duties are obliged to take a solemn oath not to disclose any information that may obtain, except to the Census Bureau, and a violation of the law in regard to this oath means a fine of $1,000 or imprisonment for two years, or both in the discretion of the court.

Notice to the Public

HOW ABOUT THAT BLACK BAT?

Fellow Who Crossed Napoleon Out at Home Plate Will be in the Game--Free Admission to the Big Park.

Who is the first man to strike Napoleon? Will he allow us to use the original Black Bat? Among the "Electric Lights" you will find "Red" Allshouse playing a leading roll for the Christians. H. J. Booth, manager of the Methodist team, will without a doubt manipulate the Strong Black Minorcas without a catcher's glove this season. John Cornell, manager of the Walton Lumber company, will furnish wood for bleachers in case the crowds attending games get too large for the ones now in use. Rev. Father Fries of the Catholics, while addressing his boys impressed in their minds that the principal feature of baseball is to win out. We are under the impression that the Rev. is an old-timer. Charles O. Frye ex-champion of the All-Star Firemen team, who played right field at Bentleyville the year 1870, and distinguished himself as a ball player in 25th inning by crossing Napoleon out at home plate, says he will lead the Baptists through the gate at Athletic Park. Robert Coyle to the front. This distinguished citizen has made a grand offer to any ball player, regardless of what team he is playing on. Robert always was liberal to baseball fans so he has decided to admit free of charge to Shady Grove Park any man, woman, or child who hits the sphere out for a one-baser. That is if they will pay car fare.

BEER AGENTS ARE HELD FOR GRAND JURY ACTION

Charleroi Man Acquitted of Serious Charge Alleged to Have Violated the Law in Two Respects.

Not Guilty of Embezzlement as Preferred by Singer Sewing Machine Man.

A. A. Hamm of Charleroi, charged with embezzlement by the clerk in the Fayette county courts, was acquitted Thursday afternoon, the court giving binding instructions in his behalf. He was prosecuted by H. D. Park of Uniontown, a Singer sewing machine representative, it being alleged that several years ago he collected money while acting as agent and failed to return it to the company. His former territory was Broadford and neighborhood.

ALLEGED MURDERER ARRESTED

Man Arrested at Marianna for Crime Committed Five Years Ago.

HEARING THIS AFTERNOON

Sam Lascel, an Englishman, was arrested at Marianna yesterday by Constable W. G. Simpson, on the charge of murdering Mary Kennedy, the 9-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Kennedy at Hazelkirk on Christmas eve, 1905. The man was brought to Monongahela where he is being held. Information was made before Alderman Wiper at Monongahela, by the girl's mother, charging Lascel with felonious shooting and manslaughter, and the hearing will be sometime this afternoon.

On the evening of the tragedy the little girl was looking at her Christmas presents, and was in the act of taking a doll from the brightly lighted tree, when a shot rang out and the child fell to the floor with a bullet in her head, the missile having entered through the window. She died a few hours later. Officers were soon on the scene and four men who had been drinking in a house not far from the Kennedy residence were arrested. At the corner's inquest a few days later two of these men, Zigmund Koraleski a Croatian, and Eugene Mason a negro, were held for the crime. The testimony indicated that the shot which ended the child's life had been intended for the father. The grand jury at the February term of court 1906 ignored the bill against the two men held by the coroner, and they were discharged.

No further developments came to light in the case until yesterday when Lascel was unexpectedly arrested and brought to Monongahela.

Women and Advertising.

One of the most forceful as well as truthful statements regarding the beneficial results of advertising appears in this week's issue of the Scottsdale Observer. Along this line Editor Cramer says:

"To womankind the news of the retail stores as seen in the advertising, makes an intimate personal appeal, because closely related to home interests. Did you ever watch a woman read a newspaper? If not, try it today.

"Observation, both at home and abroad, indicates that women show a very keen interest in advertising. Next to the local news, personal and society events, the local advertisements claim their attention. They look with avidity to see who is cutting the prices of women's and children's clothing, who has the most fetching styles and where they can buy to the best advantage for the household. They weigh every word of what the merchants say to them. It is with a less personal interest that they turn to the political and general news.

"Retail advertising is to the home-keeper what the crop is to the farmer, what the wholesale market reports are to the grocer. Women naturally feel this alert interest in the advertising, because it is full of information essential to their effort to make the family income accomplish the largest results. Merchants who fail to co-operate with this effort by an adequate public statement of prices and values, are simply ignored in the appointment of domestic expense.

"When a politician's name is rarely seen in the dispatches, the voters assume he is out of the game. When a merchant's name rarely appears in the advertising, the women assume he is lost in the shuffle. No business enterprise can afford to ignore the women and to best get the attention of the women."

The Mail is a daily visitor to practically nine-tenths of the leading homes of the town and surrounding community, and the women of the household scan the advertising columns as eagerly as the news columns. The question with our home advertisers is not so much what they get in the way of immediate results, as what they lose by not appearing constantly before the eyes of the people, particularly the women.

Uncle Joe Cannon.

The revolt against the rules formulated by the Republicans in Congress and administered by "Uncle Joe" Cannon, the Speaker of the House, is an incident that serves to make capital for the enemies of the administration. As a matter of course "Uncle Joe's" picturesque methods of administering these rules has made him enemies in his own party, and by a combination with the Democrats, who naturally oppose all Republican methods as a matter of principle, a row is in prospect. Indications point to a compromise on the part of "Uncle Joe" and his supporters.

It is probable that in the administration of his duties as Speaker of the House "Uncle Joe" has borne heavily at times on those of his own party as well as the opposition, when the latter sought to interpose obstacles to certain measures. This was only natural, and occurs in every representative body of large dimensions, civic, religious or political. The recent convention of coal miners at Indianapolis is a demonstration of this, where the president and presiding officer had many stormy battles, and was as hotly accused of demagoguery as is "Uncle Joe."

It is a well known fact that arbitrary rules must be made and enforced in controlling larger representative bodies, otherwise proceedings always could be blocked and nothing accomplished. If "Uncle Joe's" methods have become too drastic for his own party, they will in all probability be modified and his friends, the enemy, will have no opportunity of scoring any material advantage from the incident.

Back to the Land.

One of the significant incidents that reflects the tendencies of the times is the quotation from a letter that appears in the Speers correspondence published elsewhere in this issue. The letter is from a former resident who followed coal mining, but for reasons of ill health gave up that occupation and has gone to farming in Texas. Sitting beneath the shade of a tree he writes: "I have fruit trees galore, that will bring me more revenue than I ever got in a Pennsylvania coal mine in five years."

In times past, when free land was to be had for the taking, the labor situation in this country was never intense. When conditions began to crowd in certain districts, people flocked to the land, became producers, and this made the cost of living cheap for the workers as well as the farmers. Now, with all the desirable free land taken, and the population increasing faster than the farmers are able to produce food stuffs for their consumption, the labor situation is becoming intensified. Not only is the cost of living increasing, but the chances for employment are diminishing, because of the inability of the people to easily get back to the land. There are, however, still opportunities for thrifty people to avail themselves of the outlet offered by farming, and this is what the country needs. The experience of the former Speers citizen demonstrates that he has solved for himself the economic question that is now uppermost in the minds of the people.

ELECTRIC SPARKS

As a general rule the girl who marries a man to reform him doesn't.—Exchange. Doesn't what?

Some persons accused of murder finally end a nervous wreck. Others end a final twitch.

An Iowa healer avers he will oust devils. If he expects much success he had better stay out of Washington, Pa.

Charleroi will have thirteen more voters within ninety days. Reckon those Washington fellows will not call them phantoms.

Cold storage may not have been known in the days of Columbus, but if it wasn't it was discovered a few days afterward.

It doesn't matter to some fellows how much burns down and how many men are thrown out of work, so long as they get the insurance.

When it is considered that everything else is going up, there surely cannot be any reason why the Maine should not be raised.

It is now reported that the Czar of Russia has formed an alliance with the Mikado of Japan. A person wouldn't think he would be so hasty after getting so ingloriously licked by the little fellow.

Mister Peary seems to be having trouble occasionally. They have been telling him that he should furnish more proof of his discoveries in the far North. Apparently people have learned by Cook's experience.

A Uniontown man has picked his coffin, not because he needs it now, or because he expects to need it, but so he will be sure to get one in which he will be comfortable and look nice. How's he going to know whether he is comfortable or not when he puts the affair in use?

Speers.

The little church on the hill was the scene of a pleasing entertainment Tuesday evening, given by the Ladies Aid Society, of Speers. The program was arranged in up-to-date manner, and was interesting throughout. A violin solo, by Miss Meredith Haydn of McKeesport, was a rare treat for an appreciative audience, while her friend, Miss Rhoda McLoskie, as organist proved herself a musician of fine abilities. A vocal solo by Miss E. Kathryn Collins brought forth much deserved applause. Her rendition of "Sing Me to Sleep" being of the first order. Other good numbers were on the program, and the audience were well satisfied with the performance. The Ladies Aid Society are justly proud of their achievement, and expect to give another entertainment in the near future.

A party was given Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Collins in honor of their son

Clyde, who attained his 18th birthday on that date. About 40 of his young friends were present and a pleasant time was enjoyed by all. A delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Collins, and with music and singing the party was a social success. It was not until a late hour that the folks departed for their homes, wishing Clyde many happy returns of the day.

Thomas J. Collins, who recently moved his family to Ricardo, Texas, has written a very interesting letter to his brother James, relating in full the many advantages to be obtained in the Lone Star State. Mr. Collins' move to Texas was due partly to ill health while in this part of the country. He has a 90 acre farm in a good location, and he says "the climate is beautiful. He wrote the letter while sitting under a shade tree and he taunts his northern friends by saying: "The big gardens and fields are looking magnificent, and while I write the horses and cows are contentedly grazing and I have fruit trees galore that will bring me more revenue than I ever got at a Pennsylvania coal mine in five y-ars."

The Old Story

Long time ago, when the animals were getting their freedom suits, news was sent around that every one was to come to the great man's castle to be fitted out. The squirrel invited the rabbit to go for a set of teeth, but he said wait. The cat asked him to go for claws, but the rabbit said there is plenty of time. But when the other animals came back with claws and teeth, he came to his senses, and made a run for the castle, only to find there was nothing to fit him, like some people of today who put off having their eyes properly fitted with glasses, when it costs them nothing to have them examined at Borough and School Board Liens.

Acting on instructions from the borough council and the School board the borough solicitor has issued writs of scieri facias to compel the paying of overdue taxes and paving liens in the borough of Charleroi. These writs are issued in the prothonotary's office at Washington and are served by the sheriff. The borough solicitor has requested the prothonotary to hold the writs a week or 10 days to give property owners a chance to make arrangements to pay liens without additional cost. The property owners are:

RUMORED THAT COUNCILMAN A. H. FURLONG WILL RESIGN

Was Sworn in at the Reorganization Meeting First of This Month.

HOTT TO SUCCEED HIM?
Stated That One Has Already Been Selected to Take Seat in Case New Man Quits.

It has been rumored that at the next meeting of council, A. H. Furlong, one of the newly elected councilmen, will present his resignation as a member, to take effect within a short time. It is stated Mr. Furlong expects to move from Charleroi, although still continuing his piano business here. The rumor has not become a certainty, however, but it is understood to be correct.

Mr. Furlong was sworn in at the reorganization of council on March 7, and appointed on several important committees. He has attended but two meetings, but in that time has taken an active part in the putting through of important business and showed a civic interest in the welfare of the borough that indicated a wise selection for the important seat by the voters of Charleroi.

Along with the rumor that Mr. Furlong is to resign is a rumor that Burgess James J. Hott is to be elected his successor. This is the rumor among the members of council and some of the people who are closely in touch with borough matters. Mr. Hott was elected a member of council two terms before, and it is understood that should he be the chosen one, would willingly serve.

GOOD CROWDS AT THE COYLE THEATRE

Tonight will be the last chance to see the very excellent bill at the Coyle Theatre and the management will give the usual three shows starting at 7, 8:15 and 9:30 p. m.

There will be an entire change of program starting Monday, and the usual five big feature acts will be in evidence presenting some new and novel features, chief among whom will be the Harris Twins.

Popular prices prevail at the big play house. General admission 10 cents with the first 8 rows down stairs at 15 cents.

Luther League Social.

A good crowd attended the Luther League social held in the Christ Lutheran church last night. An enjoyable time was had with various diversions of a social nature.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Coles of the Wilbur Hotel expect to leave tomorrow night for Hot Springs, Ark., for a brief sojourn.

Announcement.

Mrs. M. Stewart Smith, of Charleroi, Pa., invites the ladies to meet Madam Gleason, an expert corseter, of New York, with all the spring models of the Mozart and Gossard Corset. To be at the Wilbur hotel from March 21 to 26. Come and bring your friends to this demonstration of laced front corsets.

Contractor Much Injured in Fall From Scaffold

Board Breaks Precipitating Him to Floor, Distance of About Eight Feet.

Frank Bly, the well known contractor and builder of Fallowfield avenue, while at work at the Monier building on Fallowfield avenue yesterday, fell and was seriously hurt. Mr. Bly was up on a scaffold when a board broke, precipitating him to the floor, a distance of about 8 feet. He alighted on his head and shoulders in a pile of rubbish. Fortunately no bones were broken, but Mr. Bly was much bruised and injured about the body. He was removed to his home.

CENSUS MEN WILL HAVE TO WEAR BADGES

Department Will Provide Insignia of Office to Enumerators.

PEOPLE SHOULD NOT FEAR

"U. S. Census 1910." When on and after April 15 people see a limited few persons wearing badges containing the above words and numerals, they are not to be frightened, but prepare for a searching inquiry as to their family, their names, occupation and so forth. None but the census enumerators and the supervisor have any right to wear them, and the badges will be under the coat.

The badges are an official insignia, which the census department furnishes in order that people wary of attempts to catch them in any trick by which their assessment may be raised, or for any other reason, may be positive of their position. The census enumerators will not be required to show their badges unless requested by those whom they are interviewing.

Census Director E. Dana Durand has issued a small pamphlet concerning the taking of the census, in which the entire matter is outlined. Replies to enumerators are, and must be held by the Census Bureau, in strict and absolute confidence. All the U. S. census officials, interpreters, etc., before entering upon their duties are obliged to take a solemn oath not to disclose any information that may obtain, except to the Census Bureau, and a violation of the law in regard to this oath means a fine of $1,000 or imprisonment for two years, or both in the discretion of the court.

BEER AGENTS ARE HELD FOR GRAND JURY ACTION

Charleroi Man Acquitted of Serious Charge

Not Guilty of Embezzlement as Preferred by Singer Sewing Machine Man.

A. A. Hamm of Charleroi, charged with embezzlement by the clerk in the Fayette county courts, was acquitted Thursday afternoon, the court giving binding instructions in his behalf. He was prosecuted by H. D. Park of Uniontown, a Singer sewing machine representative, it being alleged that several years ago he collected money while acting as agent and failed to return it to the company. His former territory was Broadford and neighborhood.

Alleged to Have Violated the Law in Two Respects.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY HERE

Conducts Examination of Witnesses for Commonwealth's Side.

August Bertolotti was held under bail of $1,000 and C. Battaglini and Fabri Raefaelo, each under $500 bail for action of the May grand jury, at a preliminary hearing before Justice of the Peace S. E. Wilson, yesterday afternoon, on charges of conspiracy and selling liquor without license. Bond was furnished by Battaglini's brother, Bertolotti's father, and Battaglini himself. The men were charged with illegalities as agents of the Victor Brewing company of Jeanette, officials of which attended the hearing.

There were witnesses present who testified that they had taken orders from Bertolotti for beer, generally about the first of the week. On Saturday, or at the latter part of the week, usually, the beer was delivered, so it was stated by Raefaelo, in a wagon chalk marked with Victor Brewing company's license, the dray belonging to Battaglini. Bertolotti rode alongside and notified Raefaelo where the liquor was to go. The beer was shipped to Battaglini, through the local station. A label from a case was exhibited by Health Officer William Darby.

Chief of Police Albright testified that Bertolotti had told him that he was receiving $50 a month from the Victor Brewing company, and as long as that went on, he was willing to stay away from this neighborhood. Bertolotti was caught some time after the other two, at Bridgeville, Allegheny county.

District Attorney C. L. V. Acheson, of Washington was here, and conducted the examination of witnesses for the plaintiff's side. County Detective McCleary was the prosecutor on information received from Chief of Police C. W. Albright. Court Stenographer W. H. McEneaney of Washington was here to take testimony. D. M. McCloskey, Esq., of Charleroi, and Capt. J. B. Keenan, of Westmoreland county, represented the defendants.

WOODA N. CARR WILL DELIVER CHIEF ADDRESS

Wooda N. Carr of Uniontown, will deliver the address at the Eagles Memorial services at the Palace Theatre tomorrow, Sunday, afternoon. The program will begin at 3 o'clock. Joe T. S. Cowan of Roscoe will give the eulogy. The Elk's Glee Club of Charleroi will furnish special music. The services are free to the public and all are cordially invited.

DANCING SCHOOL.

H. J. Booth, manager of the Methodist team, will without a doubt manipulate the Strong Black Minors without a catcher's glove this season.

John Cornell, manager of the Walton Lumber company, will furnish wood for bleachers in case the crowds attending games get too large for the ones now in use.

Rev. Father Fries of the Catholics, while addressing his boys impressed in their minds that the principal feature of baseball is to win out. We are under the impression that the Rev. is an old-timer.

Charles O. Frye ex-champion of the All-Star Firemen team, who played right field at Bentleyville the year 1870, and distinguished himself as a ball player in 25th inning by crossing Napoleon out at home plate, says he will lead the Baptists through the gate at Athletic Park.

Robert Cagle to the front. This distinguished citizen has made a grand offer to any ball player, regardless of what team he is playing on. Robert always was liberal to baseball fans so he has decided to admit free of charge to Shady Grove Park any man, woman, or child who hits the sphere out for a one-baser. That is if they will pay car fare.

Women and Advertising.

One of the most forceful as well as truthful statements regarding the beneficial results of advertising appears in this week's issue of the Scottsdale Observer. Along this line Editor Cramer says: "To womankind the news of the retail stores as seen in the advertising, makes an intimate personal appeal, because closely related to home interests. Did you ever watch a woman read a newspaper? If not, try it today.

"Observation, both at home and abroad, indicates that women show a very keen interest in advertising. Next to the local news, personal and society events, the local advertisements claim their attention. They look with avidity to see who is cutting the prices of women's and children's clothing, who has the most fetching styles and where they can buy to the best advantage for the household. They weigh every word of what the merchants say to them. It is with a less personal interest that they turn to the political and general news.

"Retail advertising is to the home-keeper what the crop is to the farmer, what the wholesale market reports are to the grocer. Women naturally feel this alert interest in the advertising, because it is full of information essential to their effort to make the family income accomplish the largest results. Merchants who fail to co-operate with this effort by an adequate public statement of prices and values, are simply ignored in the appointment of domestic expense.

"When a politician's name is rarely seen in the dispatches, the voters assume he is out of the game. When a merchant's name rarely appears in the advertising, the women assume he is lost in the shuffle. No business enterprise can afford to ignore the women and to best get the attention of the women."

The Mail is a daily visitor to practically nine-tenths of the leading homes of the town and surrounding community, and the women of the household scan the advertising columns as eagerly as the news columns. The question with our home advertisers is not so much what they get in the way of immediate results, as what they lose by not appearing constantly before the eyes of the people, particularly the women.

Uncle Joe Cannon.

The revolt against the rules formulated by the Republicans in Congress and administered by "Uncle Joe" Cannon, the Speaker of the House, is an incident that serves to make capital for the enemies of the administration. As a matter of course "Uncle Joe's" picturesque methods of administering these rules has made him enemies in his own party, and by a combination with the Democrats, who naturally oppose all Republican methods as a matter of principle, a row is in prospect. Indications point to a compromise on the part of "Uncle Joe" and his supporters.

It is probable that in the administration of his duties as Speaker of the House "Uncle Joe" has borne heavily at times on those of his own party as well as the opposition, when the latter sought to interpose obstacles to certain measures. This was only natural, and occurs in every representative body of large dimensions, civic, religious or political. The recent convention of coal miners at Indianapolis is a demonstration of this, where the president and presiding officer had many stormy battles, and was as hotly accused of demagoguery as is "Uncle Joe."

It is a well known fact that arbitrary rules must be made and enforced in controlling larger representative bodies, otherwise proceedings always could be blocked and nothing accomplished. If "Uncle Joe's" methods have become too drastic for his own party, they will in all probability be modified and his friends, the enemy, will have no opportunity of scoring any material advantage from the incident.

Back to the Land.

One of the significant incidents that reflects the tendencies of the times is the quotation from a letter that appears in the Speers correspondence published elsewhere in this issue. The letter is from a former resident who followed coal mining, but for reasons of ill health gave up that occupation and has gone to farming in Texas. Sitting beneath the shade of a tree he writes: "I have fruit trees galore, that will bring me more revenue than I ever got in a Pennsylvania coal mine in five years."

In times past, when free land was to be had for the taking, the labor situation in this country was never intense. When conditions began to crowd in certain districts, people flocked to the land, became producers, and this made the cost of living cheap for the workers as well as the farmers. Now, with all the desirable free land taken, and the population increasing faster than the farmers are able to produce food stuffs for their consumption, the labor situation is becoming intensified. Not only is the cost of living increasing, but the chances for employment are diminishing, because of the inability of the people to easily get back to the land. There are, however, still opportunities for thrifty people to avail themselves of the outlet offered by farming, and this is what the country needs. The experience of the former Speers citizen demonstrates that he has solved for himself the economic question that is now uppermost in the minds of the people.

ELECTRIC SPARKS

As a general rule the girl who marries a man to reform him doesn't.—Exchange. Doesn't what?

Some persons accused of murder finally end a nervous wreck. Others end a final twitch.

An Iowa healer avers he will oust devils. If he expects much success he had better stay out of Washington, Pa.

Charleroi will have thirteen more voters within ninety days. Reckon those Washington fellows will not call them phantoms.

Cold storage may not have been known in the days of Columbus, but if it wasn't it was discovered a few days afterward.

It doesn't matter to some fellows how much burns down and how many men are thrown out of work, so long as they get the insurance.

When it is considered that everything else is going up, there surely cannot be any reason why the Maine should not be raised

It is now reported that the Czar of Russia has formed an alliance with the Mikado of Japan. A person wouldn't think he would be so hasty after getting so ingloriously licked by the little fellow.

Mister Peary seems to be having trouble occasionally. They have been telling him that he should furnish more proof of his discoveries in the far North. Apparently people have learned by Cook's experience.

A Unontown man has picked his coffin, not because he needs it now, or because he expects to need it, but so he will be sure to get one in which he will be comfortable and look nice. How's he going to know whether he is comfortable or not when he puts the affair in use?

Speers.

The little church on the hill was the scene of a pleasing entertainment Tuesday evening, given by the Ladies Aid Society, of Speers. The program was arranged in up-to-date manner, and was interesting throughout. A violin solo, by Miss Meredith Haydn of McKeesport, was a rare treat for an appreciative audience, while her friend, Miss Rhoda McLoskie, as organist proved herself a musician of fine abilities. A vocal solo by Miss E. Kathryn Collins brought forth much deserved applause. Her rendition of "Sing Me to Sleep" being of the first order. Other good numbers were on the program, and the audience were well satisfied with the performance. The Ladies Aid Society are justly proud of their achievement, and expect to give another entertainment in the near future.

A party was given Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Collins in honor of their son

Clyde, who attained his 18th birthday on that date. About 40 of his young friends were present and a pleasant time was enjoyed by all. A delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Collins, and with music and singing the party was a social success. It was not until a late hour that the folks departed for their homes, wishing Clyde many happy returns of the day. Thomas J. Collins, who recently moved his family to Ricardo, Texas, has written a very interesting letter to his brother James, relating in full the many advantages to be obtained in the Lone Star State. Mr. Collins' move to Texas was due partly to ill health while in this part of the country. He has a 90 acre farm in a good location, and he says "the climate is beautiful. He wrote the letter while sitting under a shade tree and he taunts his northern friends by saying: "The big gardens and fields are looking magnificent, and while I write the horses and cows are contentedly grazing and I have fruit trees galore that will bring me more revenue than I ever got at a Pennsylvania coal mine in five years."

The Old Story

Long time ago, when the animals were getting their freedom suits news was sent around that every one was to come to the great man's castle to be fitted out. The squirrel invited the rabbit to go for a set of teeth, but he said wait. The cat asked him to go for claws, but the rabbit said there is plenty of time. But when the other animals came back with their new suits, the cat came to his castle, and made a run for the castle, only to find there was nothing to fit him, like some people of today who put off having their eyes properly fitted with glasses, when it costs them nothing to have them examined at
